

Paintball terms and conditions

NuNature

- The participant declares to have taken note of the difficulty, intensity and risks of the activity(s).
- The participant considers himself capable of participating in the activity(s) with regard to health and fitness, without endangering himself or others.
- The participant must keep his mask on at all times during the activity.
- The weapon must be kept pointed downwards by the participant when not playing.
- The participant must treat the materials with respect.